

Speakers of the nursing program of the Pediatric Colorectal Congress, December 7 2018, Nijmegen, the Netherlands

Stephanie Vyrostek Stephanie, BSN, RN

Stephanie Vyrostek Stephanie is a nursing clinical leader. She and has been in the team of The Center for Colorectal and Pelvic Reconstruction at Nationwide Children's Hospital for over 3.5 years. She has knowledge in both colorectal and urology.

Leah Moore, BSN, RN

Leah Moore serves as a nurse clinician for The Center for Colorectal and Pelvic Reconstruction at Nationwide Children's Hospital. She received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Kentucky Christian University in Grayson, KY. Leah began her nursing career with Ohio Health's Critical Care Fellowship. Upon completion, she accepted a position at Riverside Neurosurgical ICU. Before joining CCPR, Leah enjoyed working as a Gastroenterology nurse. Leah joined the CCPR team in 2017.

Erin Shann, BSN, RN

Erin Shann serves as a Nurse Clinician for the Center for Colorectal and Pelvic Reconstruction. Prior to coming to the center in 2017, Erin worked as a nurse in the inpatient arena at Nationwide Children's Hospital specifically caring for our center's colorectal patient's pre and post operatively. She obtained her Bachelor of Science from Chamberlain College of Nursing and is currently pursuing her Advance Practice Nursing degree at Otterbein University in Columbus, Ohio.

Hanny Cobussen-Boekhorst, dr, MANP, RN

Hanny Cobussen-Boekhorst works as nurse practitioner (2004) at the Pediatric and Functional Urology department, Amalia Children's Hospital, Radboud University Medical Center.

In 2016 she received her PhD at the Radboud University Nijmegen. Her research focused on 'Effectiveness of Urotherapy and specific interventions'

Mariëtte van de Vorle, MANP, RN

Mariëtte van de Vorle works as a nurse practitioner (2005) for the department of pediatric surgery, Amalia Children's Hospital, Radboud University Medical Center in Nijmegen in the Netherlands. She works in the hospital and at the outpatient clinic. She is the case manager for children aged 1 to 18 years with colorectal disorders. Before she worked as a pediatric nurse in the same clinic and provided pre and post operative care in colorectal patients and neonatology.

Edith Ekkerman, RPN ET CT

Edith Ekkerman works as a pediatric nursing consultant for enterostomal and continence therapy in Amsterdam UMC, location VUmc in the Netherlands since 2001. She works for pediatric surgery, - urology and - nephrology. Together with Marijke Voskeuil (from Amsterdam UMC location AMC/Emmakinderziekenhuis) she works as a casemanager for patients with a.o.t. ARM or Hirschsprung's Disease.

In 2018 Edith joined the GPSNAB (Global Pediatric Stoma Nurses Advisory Board) to develop the Global Pediatric Stoma Care Best Practice Guideline

Marijke E. Voskeuil, MSc, RN

Marijke E. Voskeuil is a Master of Science Pediatric Surgical Nurse Practitioner, working at the Amsterdam University Medical Center, Emma Children's Hospital.

Marijke first joined the pediatric surgical team in AMC/ EKZ 1992, as a registered nurse. After having qualified as a specialist pediatric nurse she went on to become the charge nurse of the pediatric surgical ward.

In 2014 Marijke completed a Master's degree in nursing at the Utrecht University, Hoge School. She currently has her own consultancy as Pediatric Surgical Nurse Practitioner within the team. Marijke is dedicated and tireless in looking after the care requirements of her patients. Marijke has a special interest in caring surgical and non surgical pediatric patients with congenital disorders and specializes in caring for patients with complex colorectal conditions.

Marijke is currently the case manager supporting the pediatric outpatient "follow me program". Marijke is an active member of the Parents Association of Hirschsprung disease and the Parents Association of anorectal malformation.

Heleen Schillings, Erasmus Mc/Sophia, RN

Heleen Schillings is a nursing consultant Wound-, Incontinence- and Stoma care (WIS) at Sophia Children's Hospital, Erasmus MC in Rotterdam The Netherlands. She worked as a pediatric nurse on a surgery ward for several years and in 2010 she specialized as a nursing consultant for Wound-, Incontinence- and Stoma care.

She supports children of all ages (0-18 years) in and out clinic patients with a stoma, bowel problems or wound problems.

Irene Schokker- van Linschoten, MANP, RN

Irene Schokker works as a nurse practitioner (2012) for the department of pediatric surgery, Erasmus MC Sophia Children's Hospital in Rotterdam in the Netherlands. She works in the hospital for all surgery clinic patients. She takes care of the daily pre- and postoperative surgical patients in general, with the special focus for patients with a colorectal problem.

Jacqueline Knol, MANP, RN

After the Master Advanced Nursing Practice, Groningen, the Netherlands Jacqueline Knol works as a nurse practitioner for the department of pediatric urology and nephrology, Amalia Children's Hospital, Radboud University Medical Center in Nijmegen in the Netherlands. Since 2014 she also works as a Principal clinician

Anne-Marieke Bruinekool, Bachelor of Science, RN

Anne-Marieke Bruinekool works as a nurse specialist and territory manager north at Coloplast.